

2010 West Virginia State USBC Bowling Association

“Prep Youth Bowler of the Year”

Lexie Langmyer

Lexie started bowling in 2006 at Elm Grove Lanes in Wheeling, WV. Lexie will be entering the 7th grade at Bridge Street Middle School. Lexie’s bowling accomplishments include: 4 straight years (2006-2010) of Perfect Attendance at youth bowling, 2010 1st Place Wheeling Youth Singles – Prep Division, 1st Place Wheeling Youth All Events HDCP – Prep Division, 2009 1st Place Knights of Columbus Singles Prep Division, 1st Place Wheeling Youth Singles – Prep Division, 1st Place Wheeling Youth All Events – HDCP – Prep Division, USBC SMART Scholarship 2nd Place ($125), 2008 USBC SMART Scholarship 1st Place ($150), 2007 USBC Youth Association Team Champion, Ohio Valley Prep Team Trophy, and 1st Place Wheeling Elks Bowling Tournament. Lexie’s school, social and civic activities include: Band (trumpet), Cheerleading and 4-H. Lexie enjoys cheerleading and 4-H activities, which include raising 2 rabbits (Licorice and Easter), a donkey (Jessie), a cow (MooMoo) and gardening with her dad. Lexie has a sister, Lacie, and is the daughter of Robert and Tammy Langmyer.