

2010 West Virginia State USBC Bowling Association

“Junior Youth Bowler of the Year”

Nathan Lee Brookover

Nathan started bowling in 2001 at Emerson Lanes in Parkersburg, WV. Nathan will be entering the 9th grade at Parkersburg High School. Nathan’s bowling accomplishments include: 2010 WV Pepsi Tournament Boys Scratch Division Champion, 2007 WV State USBC Bowling Association “Prep Youth Bowler of the Year”, 2006 through 2009 People to People Sports Ambassador Program (bowling), USBC Junior Gold member, 2008 OYBT Boys Division Champion and numerous bowling championships and awards starting in 2002 and continuing to the present.

Nathans’ school, social and civic activities include: Hamilton Middle School G.R.E.A.T. (Gang Resistance Education and Training) participant, HMS Finalist WV Golden Horseshoe (WV History) and HMS Honor Roll. Nathan plans to further his education by majoring in Sport Management and bowling on a college team. Nathan has a sister, Justine, and is the son of Larry and Elizabeth Brookover.