

2010 West Virginia State USBC Bowling Association

“Major/Senior Youth Bowler of the Year”

Shelly Rapp

Shelly started bowling in 2000 at Emerson Lanes in Parkersburg, WV. Shelly graduated from Parkersburg High School in May 2010. Shelly’s bowling accomplishments include: 2009-2010 Parkersburg High School Bowling Team Co-Captain, 2010 1st Place HDCP State Singles, 2010 1st Place HDCP State Doubles, 2009 & 2010 Emerson Lanes “Star of the Week, 2009 1st Place WV High School Bowling Tournament – Girls Division Actual, 1st Place HDCP Mother/Daughter, and 1st Place Emerson Lanes Youth Singles Tournament HDCP. Shelly’s school, social and civic activities include: National Honor Society, Treasurer of the Key Club, Rhododendron Girls State Delegate, Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program, Senior, Junior & Sophomore Cabinet, Builders Club, Junior Civitans, Key Club Student/Teacher Basketball Game (fundraiser for Haiti), American Cancer Society (ACS), Salvation Army Bell Ringer and Parkersburg Rotary Club – Blood Screening. Shelly will be attending Marietta College, where she has been accepted into the McDonough Leadership Program, and will be majoring in Education. Shelly is the daughter of Cassandra L. Rapp.